OF THE PACIFIC RAILROADSImportant Conference Held in This City.

MR. STUBBS ATTENDED

TRAFFIC ADVISER'S FIRST CON-FERENCE WITH COLLEAGUES.

John C. Stubbs, third vice president of the Southern Pacific, who was recently selected traffic adviser of the combined Harriman roads, was in the city yesterday, with prominent traffic officials of the Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, Oregon Short Line and Oregon Railway & Navigation companies.

The visiting officials of the Southern Pacific, who were: William Sproule, freight traffic manager, and E. O. McCormick, passenger traffic manager of the Southern Pacific; E. L. Lomax, passenger traffic manager of the Union Pacific; Benjamin Campbell, general traffic manager, and A. L. Craig, general passenger agent of the Oregon Railway & Navigation company, and C. H. Markham, general agent for the Southern Pacific at Portland.

Mr. Stubbs, who was in the city yesterday, with prominent traffic officials of the Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, Oregon Short Line and Oregon Railway & Navigation companies.

The visiting officials of the Southern Pacific, who were: William Sproule, freight traffic manager, and E. O. McCormick, passenger traffic manager of the Southern Pacific; E. L. Lomax, passenger traffic manager of the Union Pacific; Benjamin Campbell, general traffic manager, and A. L. Craig, general passenger agent of the Oregon Railway & Navigation company, and C. H. Markham, general agent for the Southern Pacific at Portland.

The officials came unheralded, but, without any loss of time, gathered in the president's office of the Oregon Short Line, with officials of that road, and held the first conference of traffic officials since the appointment of Mr. Stubbs to the position, which pays a salary equal to that of the president of the United States. The object of the meeting, it was supposed, was to bring together the traffic officials of the various departments in order that Mr. Stubbs might get in touch with them, but the traffic adviser insisted that such was not the object.

The conference did not break up until quite late in the evening and no announcements were made. One official who attended the conference, however, said that the meeting occurred here because Salt Lake is a central point between Omaha and San Francisco and Portland, from which point Mr. Campbell came in his private car.

While in session the officials discussed the relations of the four great systems represented and present from a traffic point of view, and the railroad situation generally. A good deal of time was devoted to considering methods which might be employed to better serve the Harriman interests, but the meeting developed nothing tangible. It was but one of a number of conferences to be held in order that Mr. Stubbs may have a better idea of the situation. The officials will act in perfect harmony and the four lines will be very closely affiliated.

Mr. Stubbs went east at 10 o'clock last night in Southern Pacific private car 1034. Prior to his departure he said his visit had no official significance and that there had been nothing in the papers recently about him which was enough to make all his friends wonder. Further than this he had no statement to make.

Mr. Lomax, Mr. Campbell and Mr. Craig will probably remain in the city a couple of days, conferring with the local officials.

Directors of Clark Road Now in San Francisco.

San Francisco, July 5.—Several of the officers of the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake railroad have arrived here. In the party are United States Senator Thomas Kearney, a director of the company; R. C. Kerens of St. Louis, first vice president; J. Ross Clark of Los Angeles, second vice president; and J. H. K. Kerens of Los Angeles, third vice president and general counsel. They will leave for Los Angeles in a day or two.

Senator Kearney said this road is going through without fail and the work will be done as expeditiously as circumstances will permit.

Mr. Kerens said that the matter that had been occupying most of his time and attention on his present trip was the injunction proceedings brought by the Oregon Short Line to prevent his company from occupying the old abandoned Oregon Short Line grade in Lincoln county, Nevada.

The Rio Grande Western Railroad company yesterday instituted suit in the district court against the Oregon Short Line Railroad company to condemn a right to maintain a crossing over defendant company's tracks between Pallas station and an approach to the new smelter of the American Smelting & Refining company, adjoining the Germania smelter.

Read Trashy Novels.

One Cause of Agnes Carlson's Mental Derangement.

Reading trashy novels, coupled with a hereditary taint of lunacy, was determined yesterday as the cause of Miss Agnes Carlson's insanity, and on recommendation of County Physician Mayo and Dr. Ellerbeck, she was committed to the insane asylum at Judge Pro Tempore James. The evidence showed that the insane woman during the last year had developed morbid and homicidal tendencies. She has been employed as a domestic in this city and at one time resided with her father, Carl Carlson, and sisters at 1614 Iowa avenue.

The examination of the insane woman resulted in a decision that the old woman is a subject for recommitment to the state insane asylum, but on the promise of her son and daughter, E. J. Saltsbury, and an approach to the care of her she was permitted to go home with them.

INCORRIGIBLES IN COURT.

Judge Stewart Hears Case Against Several Bad Boys.

Judge Stewart was engaged the greater part of yesterday hearing complaints against incorrigible boys. The cases against George Gross and William Timpon, charged with breaking into bath rooms at Salt Lake and June 28, were disposed of by their pleading guilty to the charge. Charles K. K. on an accomplice, will be tried later. Gross was committed to the state reform school and Timpon was committed to appear this morning for sentence.

The trial of the cases against Arthur Mayo and Ed Lewis, charged with breaking into a room at Salt Lake and June 28, was continued in its sixth week at the district court yesterday. Neither of the boys is yet 16 years of age, but according to

National Guard Officers Think
Battery Was Snubbed.

As the sun peeped over the Wasatch two days ago, and looked down upon Zion's citizens with their Fourth of July firecrackers, there was no welcoming gun from the fort, nor was the nation's natal day ushered in by any official salute from the state militia. In the general, but informal, celebration, this lapse of a time-honored custom was overlooked by all but a small part of the citizens. This small part is composed of the members of the state battery, and they had divers and sundry things to say yesterday about what they are pleased to consider as "official neglect."

"This is the first time since the state had a battery that there has been no salute," said a prominent official of the militia. "I could do nothing, however, because I received no orders from headquarters. We waited, but they didn't come; and we look upon it as a direct slight to the battery."

"We have a better battery now than the militia ever had, and our equipment is more complete than it ever was. There is a large contingent of serving powder in the armory, purchased by the state for just such purposes, but it is not used because the head of the militia didn't see fit to issue a call. The boys of the battery and my fellow officers feel that it was a slight, and for what reason it was done, I cannot see."

Other members of the battery expressed themselves in the same strain, and there was quite a good deal of feeling manifested by several of them. Adjutant General Burton took the stand that the whole matter was a question of the discretion of the commanding officer, and that he had acted as he thought best.

"If the battery boys do not receive orders when they are looking for them, it is not their place to say anything about it," said the general last night. "No question of slighting the battery ever arose; it was all a matter of expediency. If convenient, we have returned in time, some preparations would have been made for a public demonstration and there would have been a salute to the militia. But any such action on the part of a number of citizens, which wasn't forthcoming, Salt Lake is not alone, however, in not firing a salute. There are very few cities that do."

During the day a telegram was received from Denver, stating that he is working with the Colorado militia and hopes to succeed in getting Denver's withdrawal in favor of Salt Lake as the convention place for next year. Great things are expected from "Jim" Leary's campaign.

One of the features decided on by the Elks' street fair carnival committee is the christening of the live elk, which is to be known as Elks' day at the carnival. Salt Lake lodge possesses the only live elk in the state, and a cash prize will be offered by the carnival committee for the most appropriate name for the elk.

The carnival committee has also decided to establish a kangaroo court for the special benefit of visiting Elks. The committee has received a letter yesterday in reference to quarters during carnival week. The headquarters register is enrolling more names every day.
